Hey nannigan!

A third-party OAuth application (JSONbin.io) with user:email scopes was recently authorized to access your account.

Visit <https://github.com/settings/connections/applications/4d48b8543424629cbfe4> for more information.

To see this and other security events for your account, visit <https://github.com/settings/security-log>

If you run into problems, please contact support by visiting <https://github.com/contact>

Thanks,
The GitHub Team
